BARBARA WATSON

Barbara Watson is a senior Music Education major at the University of Evansville and is currently student teaching in high school and junior high choral music. A native of Oakland City, Indiana, Barbara began studying piano at the age of nine and has studied voice and flute. In addition to performing as a piano soloist and accompanist, she has also participated in many choral and instrumental ensembles.

A member of Sigma Alpha Iota, Barbara has served as president for two years. She is also a member of Music Educators' National Conference, Pi Kappa Lambda National Music Honorary, and Blue Key National Honor Society. She has received the local SAI Alumnae Performance Scholarship, the Margaret Taylor Shepard Scholarship in Music Education, and the 1985 Presser Foundation Scholarship in Music.

For the past two years Barbara has taught piano and children's music for the Institute of Fine and Performing Arts at UE. Before coming to UE, Barbara studied piano under Carolyn Spitler. She is presently a student of Anne Fiedler.
